

THIS IS ALEX

He is a gentle, polite 14-year-old who enjoys Lego and learning Spanish

Alex needs a permanent foster family

If you work in education, you may already have the skills needed to provide a stable, loving home for Alex.

Find out more about becoming his foster carer today.

Why Foster?

We urgently need 700 more foster carers to provide safe and stable homes to children in west London.

As someone who works with children every day, you have an understanding of children's development and learning needs.

We offer a comprehensive package of training, support and a generous financial allowance.*
