

Service Children's Workshop Day

Wednesday 4th November 2026

10:00 - 14:00

We are excited to invite service pupils, Year 5 and above, from Hillingdon schools to attend a FREE Remembrance themed workshop day at the Battle of Britain Bunker in Uxbridge.

As part of the day pupils will experience:

- A creative workshop led by Never Such Innocence practitioners, in either Art, poetry or songwriting
- A guided tour of the Battle of Britain Bunker
- A visit to the Battle of Britain Museum

Service pupils will have the opportunity to share experiences and work with peers from other schools, whilst reflecting on the meaning of remembrance through both historical exploration and creative expression.

To register to attend the event, please complete the form below as soon as possible and by 30th September.

Further information about the day will be provided once schools have completed the initial registration form.
