

Do you know a budding young musician in need of support?

The London Music Fund's 2023-27 Scholarship Programme opens for nominations on 6 March 2023

Scholars receive funding for a comprehensive FOUR-YEAR programme which includes:

- Weekly instrumental tuition at a suitably challenging level, normally in small groups (2-6 per group) or, in exceptional circumstances, one-to-one.
- Compulsory attendance at a weekly ensemble of a suitably challenging level.
- Regular performance opportunities at school, music service and elsewhere.
- Invitations to attend special projects and go on trips to professional concerts.
- A well-maintained instrument which can be taken home.
- A named Music Service Mentor who is the liaison between the Scholar and family, music tutor and school.

In order to be put forward for a Scholarship, the child must:

- Currently be in year 4 or 5 (so going into year 5 or 6 in September 2023)
- Attend a junior school in London where there are no school fees.
- Have been learning a musical instrument for a minimum of one year.
- Show potential and commitment to learning.
- Be in a family where the ongoing cost of tuition would be prohibitive.
