

Working with Young People on Controversial Issues

Free Online Training for Educators in Hillingdon

Tailored training sessions for those who work with young people, exploring practical tips and strategies for discussing controversial issues.

Participants are able to choose from one of three dates, with sessions lasting two hours, and being delivered online. The available dates are:

- Thursday 25th April 2024, 1pm-3pm
- Wednesday 15th May 2024, 4pm-6pm
- Tuesday 4th June 2024, 10am-12pm

In addition to the training, participants will also gain access to an online portal of resources, including activities for discussing controversial topics with young people and guidance on effectively challenging stereotypes and prejudice.

Scan or click to book

Aims:

- To explore why it is important to open up conversations about controversial issues with young people
- To look at the statutory duties on settings with regards to this work
- To impart techniques to support adults to undertake conversations with young people about controversial issues
- To explore how to effectively challenge prejudice and stereotypes to create positive change

"Felt really open and safe for discussion- brilliant example of how to lead in class."
Teacher