

What's New – November 2020

Computing Hub Update and Remote CPD Offer

We hope all is going well in your schools and that you are coping with the increasingly challenging situation.

Our hub continues to offer remotely delivered courses for primary and secondary computing teachers, which are free or low cost and often take place as twilights, thus reducing the need for cover.

Contact us via TeachComputing@lgs.slough.sch.uk or follow us on Twitter here @CompHubLGS

Cyber Security: We Couldn't Play Games Online Without It!

Thursday 26th November, 16:00-17:00

Delivered by David Oxley, STEM Ambassador and Senior Software Security Architect with McAfee.

The internet is a wonderful resource. You can play games, learn new things, play games, chat to people all round the world (free at point of call), play games, and loads of other things. Did I mention playing games?

Join this talk to find out how

- To keep yourself safe
- To teach others to keep themselves safe (including how McAfee can help for free!)
- To find out who should consider a career in Cyber Security (spoiler alert – everyone!)
